Phonics and Reading in EYFS

Miss Robson and Miss Edwards
Monday 25th September 2023

Aims of session:

- For you to have a full understanding of how we teach reading in Reception at Lightmoor Village Primary School.
- - To understand the purpose of the RWI set 1 sound books that will come home.
- - To know how you can support your child at home with their reading.
- - How to encourage reading for pleasure.

Speed Sounds

- From the start of their journey in reception, all children begin learning their 'speed sounds'.
- Speed sounds are taught in Set 1, 2 and 3.
- These are the sounds that make up most words.

Story Book From School

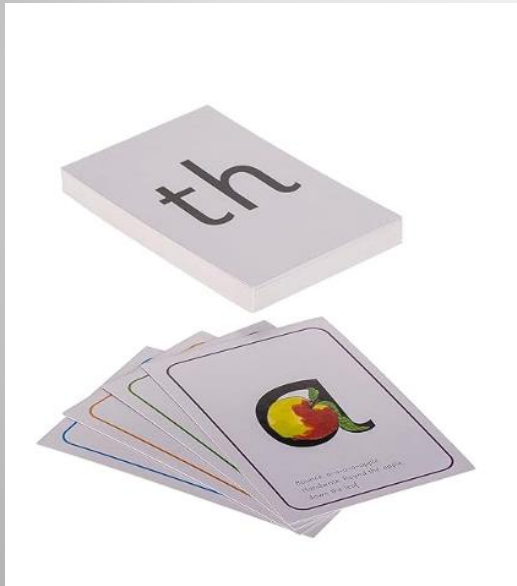

- To read with an adult – often not phonetically decodable. Aim is to share and enjoy with an adult. Promoting reading for pleasure.
- Modelling how we read, pointing at the words and modelling how we read left to right.
- Discussing favourite parts, what happened at the beginning, middle and end of the story.

Other ideas...

- Sharing books together.
- Bedtime stories?
- Identifying the Speed Sounds they have learnt on road signs/street names.
- Reading time with older siblings
